An Act to amend the Income Tax Act 1972

(20 June 1984

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Cook Islands in Session assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title - This Act may be cited as the Income Tax Amendment Act 1984, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Income Tax Act 1972 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").

Price $15.00

2. Application - Except where this Act otherwise provides, the Act shall apply with respect to the tax on income derived in the income year that commenced on the 1st day of January 1984 and every subsequent year.

3. Interpretation - Section 2 of the principal Act is amended by inserting in the definition of "Salary or wages" after the words "means salary, wages" the words "directors fees".

4. Arbitrary assessment where business controlled by non-residents appears to produce insufficient taxable income - Section 20 of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

"(1) Where any business carried on in the Cook Islands:

(a) is controlled exclusively or principally by persons not resident in the Cook Islands; or

(b) is carried on by a company not resident in the Cook Islands or by a company in which more than one half of the shares are held by persons not residing in the Cook Islands; or

(c) is carried on by a company which holds or on behalf of which other persons hold, more than one half of the shares in a company not resident in the Cook Islands, and it appears from the returns made to the Collector that the business produces no taxable income or less than the amount of taxable income which in the opinion of the Collector might be expected to arise from that business the person carrying on the business in the Cook Islands shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, be assessable for and liable to pay income tax on a taxable income of such amount as the Collector determines, being, in the opinion of the Collector, either:

(a) such proportion as he determines of the total receipts (whether cash or credit) of the business; or

(b) such proportion as he determines of the total purchase money paid or payable (whether in cash or by the granting of credit) in the conduct of the business."

5. Tax on working visitors - (1) Section 43 of the principal Act is repealed.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of July 1984.

6. Rebate in respect of low income earners - Section 45A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 4 of the Income Tax Amendment (No.2) Act 1980) is repealed and the following section substituted:

"45A Pebate in respect of low income earners - (1) Where in any income year a taxpayer has an assessable income of $3,500 or less there shall be allowed from the income tax payable a rebate equal to the amount of such income tax.

(2) Where in any income year a taxpayer has an assessable income greater than $3,500 and less than $4,000 there shall be allowed from the income tax payable a rebate of $175 diminished by 35c for each complete dollar of taxable income which exceeds $3,500.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(a) an absentee; or

(b) any company, body corporate or trust."

7. Special exemptions for superannuation, life insurance contributions - Section 46 of the principal Act (as inserted by section 2 of the Income Tax Amendment Act 1980) is amended by:

(a) deleting from subsection (1) the words "smaller of the following sums:

(a) the amount contributed in that income year.

(b) $520.00"

and substituting the words "amount of his contributions during the same income year."

(b) deleting from paragraph (a) of subsection 2 the words "smaller of the following sums:

(a) The amount contributed in that income year.

(b) $520.00"

and substituting the words "amount of those premiums.";

(c) repealing subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

"(3) A deduction by way of special exemption pursuant to this section by a taxpayer in respect of any income year shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of $1,040.00.";

(d) inserting after subsection (3) (as inserted by paragraph (c) of this section) the following new subsections:

"(4) The Collector may, in his discretion, disallow a deduction by way of special exemption:

(a) under subsection (1) of this section in respect of contributions withdrawn within 5 years after the date upon which any contribution was made,unless there is a regular pattern of contributions by the taxpayer over that period between the date upon which any contributions was made and the date upon which the contribution or contributions are withdrawn;

(b) under subsection (2) of this section in respect of premiums paid in respect of any policy of life insurance which is surrendered within 5 years after the commencement of the terms of that policy.

(5) Where the Collector disallows a deduction by way of special exemption he may make or amend any assessment or assessments of the taxpayer for any year without allowing that deduction. For the purposes of giving effect to this subsection, the Collector may amend any assessment or assessments of the taxpayer at any time, notwithstanding anything in Section 23 of this Act.

(6) This section shall not apply to any premiums or contributions in respect of which a deduction has been allowed under any other provision of this Act."

8. Special exemptions for dependants of taxpayers - Section 46A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 5 of the Income Tax Amendment (No.2) Act 1980) is amended by:

(a) omitting from subsection (2) the expression "$2,000" and substituting the expression "$3,500";

(b) omitting from subsection (3) the expression "$2,000.00" and substituting the expression "$3,500".

9. Apportionment of rebates and special exemptions in certain cases - Section 47 of the principal Act is amended by:

(a) deleting from subsection (1) the words "section 44 or section 45 of";

(b) deleting from subsection (2) the words "section 44 and section 45 of";

(c) deleting from paragraph (b) of subsection (3) the words "section 44 and section 45 of".

10. Incomes wholly exempt from taxation - (1) Section 48 subsection (1) of the principal Act is amended by:

(a) repealing paragraph (n);

(b) inserting after paragraph (v) (as inserted by section 2 of the Income Tax Amendment Act 1976) the following new paragraphs:

"(w) Income derived by any person pursuant to the provisions of the Child Benefit Act 1973;

(x) Income derived pursuant to a contract of employment between an expatriate employee and the Government under a supplementation or similar scheme;

(y) Income derived by consular and diplomatic personnel as may by regulation be exempted."

11. Certain deductions not permitted - Section 64 of the principal Act is amended:

(a) in paragraph (f) by adding after the words "income tax" the words "bonus issue tax, additional tax, penal tax and tax imposed in any country outside the Cook Islands being a tax which, in the opinion of the Collector, is substantially of thesame nature as income tax or bonus issue tax imposed under this Act, and any additional tax for late payment of tax, any interest, any penalty and any additional tax imposed under the penal provisions of the laws of that country or territory;";

(b) by inserting after paragraph (g) the following new paragraphs:

"(h) Any expenditure or loss incurred by any taxpayer in gaining or producting assessable income which consists of income from employment;

(i) Any expenditure or loss to the extent to which it is of a private or domestic nature;

(j) Any expenditure or loss to the extent to which it is incurred in gaining or producing income which is exempt from income tax."

12. Special exemption in respect of gifts of money to charitable organisations - The principal Act is amended by repealing section 74(A) (as inserted by section 2 of the Income Tax Amended Act 1979-30) and substituting the following section:

"74A. Special exemption in respect of gifts of money to charitable organisations - (1) For the purpose of assessing income tax every taxpayer other than an absentee, shall subject to this section be entitled to a deduction by way of special exemption from assessable income of any gift or gifts of money (not being testamentary gifts) made to a charitable organisation in the income year.

(2) Where a deduction is claimed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section that claim shall:

(a) in the case of a taxpayer other than a company be:

(i) not less than $2.00 and no greater than $500; or

(ii) not less than $2.00 and no greater than 5% of assessable income,

whichever is the lesser amount;

(b) in the case of a company be:

(i) not less than $2.00 and no greater than $2,000; or

(ii) not less than $2.00 and no greater than 5% of assessable income,

whichever is the lesser amount.

(3) No exemption shall be allowed under this section unless the taxpayer furnishes to the Collector receipts evidencing the payment of donations.

(4) For the purposes of this section the term "gift" includes a subscription paid to a society, institution, association, organisation trust, or fund only if the Collector is satisfied that the subscription does not confer any rights arising from membership in that or from any other society, institution, association, organisation, trust or fund.

(5) For the purpose of this section the term "charitable organisation" includes a society, institution, association, organisation or trust declared to be a charitable organisation pursuant to subsection (6) of this section and which is not carried out for the private pecuniary profit of any individual and the funds of which are applied wholly or principally to any charitable, religious, benevolent, philanthropical or cultural purposes within the Cook Islands.

(6) The Minister may by notice published in the Cook Islands Gazette declare that a society, institution, association, organisation is a charitable organisation for the purpose of this section of this Act and such notice shall take effect from the date to be specified therein.
