ELECTION OF SPEAKER

Part 2 of the Standing Orders of the Cook Islands Parliament, and Article 31 of the Constitution and Constitution Amendment 2001 No.24.

We will now go to the election of the Speaker.

Honourable Members, before I call the nomination for the Speaker, I would like to draw your attention and to take note of the Constitution Amendment No.24.

“The person who shall be elected Speaker of Parliament and no other shall be the person nominated by the Prime Minister.”

We will now commence the election process for the Speaker. At this moment I now call on the nomination.

I recognise the Prime Minister, Honourable Henry Puna, Member of Parliament for Manihiki.

HON. H. PUNA: Greetings Madam Chairperson. Greetings to the Honourable Members of this House. Special greetings to all our new Honourable Members who have been elected by their people to represent them in this Honourable House.

Special greetings to all our relatives, the spouses and the supporters of our Members in this House today. There will be a special time to be given to us to give our extended greetings. We will just take a brief version of the greetings just for today.

Madam Chairperson, to you and the honourable staff of this House – greetings to you all. As our Reverend has stated today, we know that you have worked very hard to get things started and ready for today and tomorrow.

Madam Chairperson, as you have correctly stated, in accordance with Article 31 that was amended by the Democratic Party, it is now the requirement that the nomination will be put forwarded by the Prime Minister.

Therefore under the stipulations of this Amendment I would like to move:

That our distinguished Niki Rattle be appointed as the Speaker of this Honourable House

There are various reasons why our Government believes that this lady should be reappointed as the Speaker of the House. The first thing if we look around in this House there are a majority of men. Therefore I believe that we need to appoint a woman to control us and also to give us guidance as we do our work in this House.

Secondly, we are fully aware of the capacity and the judgment of this lady in leading us in the last Parliamentary term and she is well known in the Pacific and globally. That is the reason why we are confident that we should reappoint her into this honourable position.

In the last Parliamentary term we started looking and re-examining the Standing Orders of this Parliament and there are some issues that were identified to be rectified. We know that when the meetings of Parliament are held we need all the Members to be in the House so that the proceedings can go ahead. This world will not be waiting for us. So we need to make some adjustments and amendments so that the business of the House can continue.

And here is the resolution by Amendments that you have stated before us, this is not quite good, it's not right. As you said whatever or whoever the Prime Minister nominates that is the end of it.

I know why this law was amended in 2001. It is not for a good reason but now this has become a burden on us which is weighing us down at this moment. If we look at the Standing Orders it's different to what the Constitution states. Therefore this House needs to deliberate on this issue and make decisions on how we should proceed and I believe that we will all co-operate in this House on this particular issue.

For these reasons I would like to seek your support that we appoint Niki Rattle to become the Speaker of Parliament for this coming term.

ACTING CLERK AT THE TABLE: Thank you Honourable Prime Minister Henry Puna, Member of Parliament for Manihiki.

Honourable Members we now have a nomination for the Speaker Elect. Do we have a Seconder? I recognise the Honourable William Heather Junior.

HON. W. HEATHER JNR: Thank you Acting Clerk. Madam Chair Person, I would like to offer my support to this nomination based on what we have witnessed in our last Parliamentary term. Without doubt we all on this side provide our support on this important nomination. Therefore, Prime Minister we all offer our support to the nomination you have tabled before the House for running our Parliament into the future. God Bless us all.

Seconded by the Honourable William Heather Jnr

ACTING CLERK AT THE TABLE: There being only one nomination and none other than Niki Rattle is declared the Speaker Elect.

If you bear with me I would like to escort the Speaker Elect into the Chamber. Honourable Members, the Speaker Elect Honourable Niki Rattle. All stand please.

MADAM SPEAKER (N. RATTLE): Greetings to you all Honourable Members and also to your spouses, your families and your supporters, special greetings to you in the name of our Lord this afternoon.

It is indeed a great pleasure to welcome you all into the Chamber, the Public Gallery and the precincts of this dignified House for the first day of this 49th Session of Parliament. I extend my very humble thanks and gratitude to you, Honourable Henry Puna the Prime Minister of the Cook Islands for according me the confidence in nominating me as the Speaker of this dignified House. I also extend the same sentiments to the Honourable William Heather as the seconder of my nomination and to all the Honourable Members in this distinguished House.

I am obviously extremely honoured to accept the nomination and shall do my utmost to perform my duties to progress many development initiatives that have begun with a vision of new initiatives in ensuring an effective and well functioning institution into the future for good governance and the democracy for the welfare of this nation.

However before these can happen I am prescribed to present myself to His Excellency Tom Marsters the Queen's Representative to subscribe the Oath of Allegiance and to lay claim of all the privileges of this Parliament.

Honourable Members, Ladies and Gentlemen, Parliament is now suspended until such time that we return from the Queen's Representative.

Sitting resumed at 2.50 p.m.

MADAM SPEAKER: Honourable Members, please be seated.

We will now go on to the next business of the swearing in of the Members. I am sure as we left you behind you've been preparing for this very special event in your being sworn in as a Member of Parliament this afternoon.

As we have no further business but there will be a couple of announcements before we close for the day. With all our guests and families who are waiting outside, I think we deserve to have a bit of lunch for the hard work that we have done this afternoon. So the announcement I would like to make, it is now going on to 3.30 p.m so we can take some times with our families and have lunch with them and perhaps if all the Members of Parliament can please meet at the Auditorium at 4.30 p.m this afternoon. We would like everybody to assemble outside the Auditorium so we can have a practise of what's going to happen tomorrow. It's a big day tomorrow and there's going to be a lot of people. It's going to be a very big function tomorrow, so we need to be able to go down and know exactly what we're going to do so things will run smoothly.

Honourable Members, Parliament will now adjourn until 10.00 a.m tomorrow. Although that is our starting time, all Members of Parliament and your spouse's must be here at 9.00 a.m in the morning but the proper adjournment time for the starting of the business at the Auditorium is 10.00 a.m.

Can I ask someone to say our closing prayer please?
