1966, No.2

An Act to provide for the Administration of Ordinances of the Cook Islands by Ministers

(10 November 1966)

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislative Assembly of the Cook Islands in Session assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title - This Act may be cited as the Cook Islands Ordinances Amendment Act 1966.

2. Interpretation

"The Constitution" means the Constitution of the Cook Islands (as set out in the second schedule to the Cook Islands Amendment Act 1965 of the Parliament of New Zealand).

"High Commissioner" means the High Commissioner appointed under Article 3 of the Constitution.

"Minister" means a Minister appointed under Article 13 of the Constitution.

3. Ministers to administer ordinances - (1) In any Ordinance of the Cook Islands where any thing, act, consent, duty, power or function is required to be done, performed, exercised or forborne by the High Commissioner the same shall be done, performed, exercised or forborne by the appropriate Minister to the same intent and effect in all respects as if when the Ordinance was enacted the Minister had been so authorised in lieu of the High Commissioner.

(2) The appropriate Minister referred to in the preceding subsection shall be the Minister charged with administering the Ordinance or Ordinances set forth in the schedule to this Act.

4. Additions to Schedule by Order in Council - The High Commissioner may, from time to time by Order in Executive Council add to the list of Ordinances to be administered by the appropriate Minister as set out in the schedule hereto, and thereafter such additional Ordinances shall be administered by such appropriate Minister to the same effect as if inserted at the date of commencement of this Act.

5. Consequential Amendment - Subsection (3) of section 57 of the Cook Islands Amendment Act 1964 is hereby amended by deleting the words "High Commissioner" in any Ordinance of the Cook Islands where they conflict with the provisions of this Act and substituting the word "Minister".
