1971-72, No. 11

An Act to amend the Electoral Act 1966

(18 February 1972)

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislative Assembly of the Cook Islands in Session assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title - This Act may be cited as the Electoral Amendment Act 1971-72 and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Electoral Act 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Electoral Officers - Subsection (1) of section 4 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (c) the words "in any island".

3. Nominations - Section 29 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:-

"(5) Any registered elector of the constituency may inspect any nomination paper or consent at the Returning Officer's office at any time when the office is open for the transaction of business but if that nomination paper or consent is not available through reason of lack of communication the registered elector may inspect the telegram or other document communicating that nomination paper or consent at the Returning Officer's office at any time when the office is open for the transaction of business".

4. Hours of polling - Section 43 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following proviso:-

"Provided also that on the islands of Palmerston, Nassau and Manuae, if the Chief Electoral Officer so directs the poll shall commence at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and shall close at one o'clock in the afternoon of the same day."

5. Special Voters - Section 52 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:-

"(3) (a) On polling day, on delivery by the special voter of the certificate issued to him as aforesaid, the presiding officer at the place named in the certificate shall supply the special voter with a voting paper in the form 8A. He shall also supply the special voter with a list of candidates nominated for the constituency in which the special voter is registered, and with an envelope marked "special vote".

(b) The voter, after having alone and secretly printed in the name of the candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to vote, shall fold the voting paper and place it in the envelope, and deposit the envelope after sealing it, in the ballot box."

6. Preliminary Count of Votes - Section 55 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection:-

"(4) Any envelope marked special vote received by the Presiding Officer shall be sent unopened to the Returning Officer who shall open the envelope and transmit the vote to the Chief Electoral Officer, who shall announce the number of special votes as soon as collected and add to the total number of votes received by the candidate for whom they are recorded."

7. Voting papers to be secured - Section 56 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:-

"(3) (a) Each Returning Officer shall make up into a packet all special voting papers received by him and shall forward them to the Chief Electoral Officer.

- (b) The Chief Electoral Officer may, at his discretion, forward the special votes on to the Returning Officer of the constituency for which they were cast, or if the Chief Electoral Officer is satisfied that there is insufficient communication, and that the votes were cast in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he may transmit the number of special votes received by each candidate to the Returning Officer who shall include those numbers in his report to the Chief Electoral Officer made in accordance with subsection (1) of section 58 of this Act.
- (c) Where the special votes received and dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer pursuant to subsection (4) of section 55 of this Act are not forwarded to the Returning Officer, the Chief Electoral Officer shall dispose of the special voting papers, certificate and counterfoils as provided in subsection (1) of section 61 of this Act."

8. Interfering with or influencing voters - Section 65 of the principal Act is hereby repealed and the following section substituted:-

- "65. (1) Every person commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars who at an election -
- (a) In any way interferes with any elector, either in the polling booth or while on his way thereto, with the intention of influencing him or advising him as to his vote:
