1987, No. 29

An Act to amend the Primary Producers Federation Act 1980.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Cook Islands in Session assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. Short Title - This Act may be cited as the Primary Producers Federation Amendment Act 1987 and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Primary Producers Federation Act 1980 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").

2. Constitution - The provisions of the Constitution of the Federation referred to in the first column of the Schedule to this Act are amended in the manner set out in the second column of the Schedule to this Act.

3. Directors - (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the principal Act, or the Constitution of the Primary Producers Federation, and for the purpose of enabling new members to be admitted to the Primary Producers Federation, the Minister of Agriculture shall, within 1 month after the coming into force of this Act in writing appoint a board of 5 directors of the Federation who shall within one month of such appointment call a public meeting for the purpose of receiving applications for membership of the Federation, and after considering those applications and approving such of those applications as those directors think fit in the best interests of the Federation, shall then within one month of the public meeting hold a meeting of the members of the Federation.

(2) At the meeting of the members of the Federation called by the directors pursuant to subsection (1), those directors shall vacate office (but shall be eligible for re-election), and the members shall thereupon at that meeting appoint a board of directors in the manner provided in the Constitution of the Federation. Every director appointed at that meeting shall thereupon be deemed to have been validly elected and shall hold office until the next annual general meeting of the Federation.

This Act is administered by the Agriculture Department.
