(5) The Tribunal shall review and advise the Minister of a determination for each position that is subject to its jurisdiction at intervals of not more than 3 years.

20. Submissions to Tribunal - (1) Any person or any organisation shall be entitled to make written submissions to the Tribunal in relation to the exercise by the Tribunal of its functions under this Act.

(2) Where the Tribunal is considering whether to make a determination in relation to the remuneration of any person or group of persons, the following persons and organisations shall be entitled to make written submissions and, at their option, oral submissions to the Tribunal, at a time and place and in a manner to be determined by the Tribunal -

(2) To enable it to carry out its functions, the Tribunal may require any person to furnish information concerning salaries or other conditions of employment or both for any positions, whether or not those positions are subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribunal under this Act.

(3) In addition to the powers expressly conferred on the Tribunal by this Act or any other enactment, the Tribunal shall have such other powers as may be reasonably necessary to enable it to carry out its functions.

23. Money to be appropriated by Parliament for purposes of this Act - All fees, salaries, allowances, and other expenditure payable or incurred under or in the administration of this Act shall be payable out of money to be appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

24. Members not personally liable - No member of the Tribunal shall be personally liable for any act done or default made by the Tribunal in good faith in pursuance or intended pursuance of the powers and authorities of the Tribunal.

25. Other enactments not to prevail - Notwithstanding any provision of any other Act authorising any person or body to fix any remuneration or allowance, as from the commencement of this Act, any remuneration or allowance which the Tribunal has jurisdiction to determine by virtue of this Act or any other enactment shall be fixed by that Tribunal and not otherwise.

26. Consequential amendments - The enactments specified in Schedule 2 to this Act are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.

27. Savings and validation - (1) Nothing in this Act shall affect the validity of any determination made by the Higher Salaries Commission before the commencement of this Act and every such determination shall be and be deemed always to have been valid according to its tenor.
